Online services

From 2020 onwards, we are offering our services online. We are happy to design an individual package ranging from company presentations and case studies in a virtual setting to personal interviews tailored to your HR needs.

Annual career fair

Present your company and your job offers, as well as trainee programs or research projects on our beautiful campus. Enlarge your network and speak directly with our students and alumni. Find out more: constructor.university

Company presentations

Introduce your company to a general audience or to students from only certain disciplines.

Case study trainings

Get to know the skills and commitment of our students, e.g. with exclusive workshops on real-life challenges from your organization.

Interviews and assessment center

We are happy to assist you pre-selecting candidates and invite you to recruit and conduct interviews directly on our campus.

Individual recruiting formats

Be it a business dinner, a company visit or subject-related workshops and competitions – we find the suitable format for your individual requirements.

Job portal “JobTeaser”

Publish your company profile and your job and internship offers on our online portal free of charge. In addition, you can create your own events, reaching out to our students directly. Moreover, you will be able to get in touch with the Alumni and PhD students from Constructor University.

Alumni network

Reach out to our graduates worldwide and recruit highly qualified young professionals as specialists and managers for your organization.
