

Intercultural Competence and Culturally Sensitive Communication

Course Description

This course focuses on the following aspects of the exchange student process:

1. The development of cultural awareness;
2. Building intercultural communication capacities;
3. Familiarization with Dimensions of Diversity;
4. Understanding the pitfalls of stereotyping, learn what microaggressions and prejudice are;
5. Understand what intercultural competence in the German context is and
6. Develop an understanding of human rights from a perspective of diversity and inclusion through tour to migration museum.

A day trip to the Deutsches Auswanderhaus in Bremerhaven (German Immigration Center) is included. For more information, please visit: Welcome - German Emigration Center Bremerhaven \(dah-bremerhaven.de\).