International Outlook

With more than 120 nations represented on campus, students learn from a melting pot of ideas and perspectives. Such a diverse environment encourages open-minded thinking, helps students discover new passions, and prepares them to succeed in a globalized world.

Student Life & Services

- Access to on-campus canteens offering meal plan
- 24/7 campus security and monitored student housing
- Visa guidance and pre-arrival support
- Orientation program and intercultural counseling
- Student clubs for sports, arts, technology, and social engagement

Academic Support

Students benefit from small classes where learning is interactive and personal. Professors follow a transdisciplinary approach, exploring topics from multiple perspectives and serving as both mentors and academic advisors who guide you in your academic decisions.

And after PBS?

Transition seamlessly into full-time undergraduate studies in the following fall semester. Completion of the program not only grants conditional admission to your chosen undergraduate degree but also allows you to transfer the 12.5 ECTS credits earned during the semester, reducing your future academic workload.
